Outdoor Learning with Wiltshire Wildlife Trust

Our Outdoor Learning focus reached its conclusion this week, with two more classes enjoying a range of activities led by the Wiltshire Wildlife Trust. Falcons completed their activities on Thursday and Hawks on Friday. We are looking to embed more outdoor learning into our curriculum next academic year, and these sessions with the Wiltshire Wildlife Trust have given us a great overview of how this can work. Here are some comments from the children on their outdoor adventures this week:

"Working together was fun...I worked with children I have never played with." Keira, Hawks

"We found a pet snail and he joined us in the den." Eloise and Darcey, Hawks

"It was fun having a whole day in the woodland wonderland!" Sam, Falcons

"I loved the den building. We even made a swing!" Anisia, Falcons.

A message from the Headteacher

The end of term has brought some lovely sunshine (for a little while), and this has helped to lift everyone's spirits. Buzzards and Hawks enjoyed a fantastic Romans day, with some super costumes on display. One of the day's activities was a cooking task, where the children made a Roman honey cake I can confirm that the cake was rather delicious!

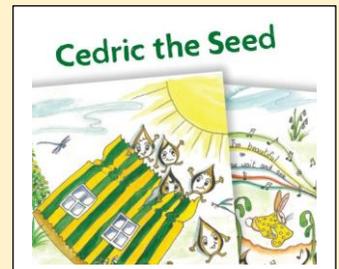

Chippenham Library have asked us to let parents and carers know that they are fully open, and would welcome visitors over the half term break to have a look at all of their new books!

Have a good break, and a well-deserved rest. We look forward to seeing everyone back on Monday 7th June.

Best Wishes,
Mrs Joy

Morrisons – In Store Library

Following on from their Seeds of Hope campaign, Morrisons have created a children's book based on Cedric the Seed. The story follows him on his journey from a tiny seed to a tall sunflower. Morrisons have very kindly offered schools a copy of the book, along with some sunflower seeds for the children to plant. In addition, they are setting up an in-store library called The Little Library, for children to borrow a book and return it when they have read it. They are looking for donations of children's books to help build up the in-store library provision. If you have any books which you could donate, please take them to the Morrisons store in Chippenham.
